THREE WOODSON PEOPLE SLAIN BY CRAZED MAN

CHARLES EZARD, EVERETT E. CRAIN AND SON HOWARD MEET THEIR DEATH AT HANDS OF ASSASSIN

John Henry, Crazed with Liquor, Enters Ezard Home and Fires Wildly at Wife ---Charles Ezard Is Killed as He Rushes to Woman's Aid---Mr. Crain and Little Son Shot from Darkness as They Stand on Porch of Their Home---Murderer Still at Large---May Have Taken Own Life.

Woodson community was thrown into a frenzied state of excitement Tuesday night over the triple murder which was enacted there at 7 o'clock when John Henry shot and instantly killed his neighbor Charles Ezard and a half an hour later Everett Crain, another neighbor was called to the door and he and his three year old son Howard were instantly killed with a shot gun, by an unknown man thought also to be Henry, who fired from the darkness.

The reported cause of the affair was that Henry had been drinking heavily and became enraged when his wife went to the home of Mr. Ezard, to avoid him, would not accompany him home. Henry is still at large and there is a deep feeling in the community that he has taken his own life. Sheriff Rogers and Deputies Todd and Andrews guarding the Ezard residence, which is housing the family of Henry, lest the murderer return in the night to complete his awful carnage of death.

Families Were Friendly.

The farm of Charles Ezard is one mile south of Woodson and adjoining on the south a quarter of a mile is the home of John Henry. The home of Everett Crain is a half a mile west and a half a mile south of the Henry place. All these men are about forty years of age and the Ezard family and Henry family have been most friendly and on intimate terms for many years. The Crain family is related to the Henry family, Charles Crain's wife being a cousin of John Henry.

Shooting at Ezard Home.

The shooting at the Ezard home occurred shortly after 7 o'clock. Mrs. Henry had gone to the residence about that time and was in the dining room, where the family was eating supper. Ten minutes after she got there her husband appeared on the scene and pushed open the door on the east side of the house, which leads directly into the dining room. He fired at her, the shot going wild and struck in the west wall of the room above some bottles on the mantle piece. The shot put the lights out in the room and at the same instant Mrs. Henry rushed toward her husband and grappled with him, at the same time begging him not to shoot.

Begs Henry Not to Shoot.

She was getting the better of him and called Mr. Ezard, who was sitting at the dining table. Mr. Ezard rose from the table and advanced toward the door where they were struggling. Henry aimed the gun at him when Ezard cried, "For Heaven's sake you wouldn't shoot at me, for the sake of my wife and babies." Mrs. Henry was still struggling with her husband and a moment afterwards the gun was discharged. The shot struck Ezard in the right side, just below the shoulder and tore a big hole in his side. He fell lifeless to the floor in a pool of blood. Mrs. Henry still grappled with her husband after the shooting and the struggling extended to the porch, where he trampled upon her. After freeing himself he made his way into the darkness.

Kisses Children Good-bye.

Henry made his way home as fast as possible. He gathered his children together, kissed them, bade bade them good night and said that he was going away. He told them to be good boys and girls. Before he left his home he went to a box and emptied it of gun shells, putting them in his pocket. The children, who had heard the 'phone ring from the Ezard home knew of the shooting of Mr. Ezard by their father before he arrived home and they were frightened beyond measure when he arrived. Upon arriving he showed that he did not intend to do them any bodily injury and the time was very short before he had left his home.

Calls Crain to the Door.

So far as known Mr. Henry was on foot. A half an hour later, however, some one rapped at the door of Everett Crain's residence. Mr. Thurston, the hired man went to the door and open it and at the same time Mr. Crain's little son, Oswald, aged 7 years ran out on the porch and half a second later returned inside and said, "It's John Henry, papa." A moment later Mr. Crain went to the door and turned half way around, peered into the darkness. He had no sooner done so when a shot was fired which struck him fairly in the back. His little son Howard, aged 3 years had pushed his way too out at the door and was standing in front of his father. The second shot from the darkness struck the little fellow squarely in the back of the head, crushing the skull to a pulp. Both Crain and his son fell to the floor, just inside of the door.

Physicians Are Summoned.

There was no one about the house except Mrs. Crain and the hired man. Out in the gloomy night could be heard the noise of someone leaving the premises. Mr. Thurston wen to the telephone and called for both Dr. J. H. Spencer and Dr. R. R. Jones, both men also having been previously summoned a few minutes before to the Ezard residence. The shots were effective, however, and death had ensued long before the physicians had arrived.

Henry Crazy With Drink.

Henry had settled up for some corn at the Woodson elevator Tuesday morning and had come to Jacksonville on the noon train and returned at 4 o'clock. At 5 o'clock he talked with a number of people at Woodson. No one noticed anything wrong with the man except some alleged that he showed signs of drinking It is stated by those who know Mr. Henry that whenever he drank heavily, liquor crazed him and it was for this reason, that after he had returned home Tuesday night his wife left home and went to the residence of Mr. Ezard. This seemed to enrage the husband, who after ten minutes had elapsed, followed her to the Ezard home which is only a quarter of a mile away.

Sheriff Notified.

Sheriff W. B. Rogers was notified of the shooting and he in company with deputies B. C. Andrews and Frank Todd secured a rig and went to the scene of the shooting. A search was made in the immediate vicinity but the extreme darkness of the night forced the officers to give up their search until this morning. After the shooting Mrs. Henry took her children to the Ezard home, and great fears were entertained that Henry would return later and try to kill his wife and other members of the family. For this reason Sheriff Rogers deemed it best to leave the two deputies at the home to guard it, and also remained there himself.

Think Henry a Suicide.

There is a deep feeling in the neighborhood that Henry will take his own life, being so crazed with drink. A report was current that he had done so but there was no one who could locate the origin of the story. Sheriff Rogers, however, has made every preparation to take up the hunt for the man this morning and by the use of the phone the shooting is pretty well known through every nook and corner of that part of the county.

Only Evidence of Murderer.

The only evidence that the people have that it was Henry who shot Crain was the statement of Mr. Crain's little son who ran out on the porch and came back, reporting that John Henry was outside. The closeness of the first shooting, does not leave much doubt as to the murderer of the three.

Land Trouble Not a Cause.

Because of a dispute over the rental of some land between the Crain and Henry families, last fall, which resulted in the matter being settled by board of arbitration, a number of citizens were wont to believe that the shooting was the outgrowth of this feud. The fact is, however, that John Henry was not an interested party in the land controversy and that his friendship for Mr. Ezard and his family had always been of the best kind, and Henry had held the same kind of feeling toward the Crain family, so that no explanation is given as to why he should want to take the life of either.

Bore Good Reputation.

Mr. Henry is the son of Charles E. Henry and has always borne an excellent reputation. He has been a very prosperous farmer, business man and well liked. He and Ezard had always been warm friends. He married Lou Megginson, a daughter of G. A. Megginson. They have seven children.

Mr. Ezard leaves a wife, a daughter Hazel, aged 12 years, a son Harry, aged 14 years, and an infant child, one month old. He was a well known farmer, highly regarded and a member of the Christian church, Mr. Crain and John Henry, also being members of the same church. Mrs. Ezard was before her marriage a Miss Spaenhower.

Mr. Crain, leaves a wife and two children, Oswald, aged 7 years and Howard, who was killed, aged 3 years. Mr. Crain was a member of the Masonic lodge, Odd Fellows and M. P. L. About seven years ago he had held the office of constable.

Inquest Held Today.

Coroner G. W. Wright was notified and went to Woodson last night but the inquests will not be held until today. The triple murder is the first of its kind in the history of Morgan county and the entire Woodson community is paralyzed over the shooting. The prominence of the families involved makes the tragedy all the more shocking. News of the murder spread to all parts of the county and so many were anxious to call friends in that neighborhood to learn all the particulars that the telephones were utilized to their fullest capacity.

Suicide Story.

Shortly after the shots rang out which killed Everett Crain and his little son another one was heard a few hundred yards distant from their home. This immediately gave rise to the story that Henry had dashed away from the house and had speedily taken his own life as a fitting end to the awful tragedy. Investigation, however, showed that a party of boys were out hunting in the neighborhood and it may have been a shot from their guns which was heard. The night was inky black and it was impossible to make any sort of a search to discover as to whether there was a real foundation for the suicide story.

People in Fear.

In addition to the blackness of the night it was also true that the timidity of the people prevented any special search. The news of the murder seemed to have cast not only a great gloom upon the community but also a great fear. Men and women in their homes and in their stores talked in hushed whispers. If upon the streets they moved about silently and many confessed to a fear that the murderer might appear in their very midst and add further to his list of crimes. There was too a feeling among some of them that Henry had become a raving maniac thirsting for blood and that he was probably armed and lurking somewhere in the vicinity where for many years he had been a familiar figure. This feeling led most of those who were upon the streets to go without lanterns for they felt safer under cover of the night than with lantern in hand which might mark their location for the possible marksman.

Murderer Not Likely to Flee.

It can be safely said that few residents of Woodson or vicinity slept at all last night and few residents indeed went to bed. One store which usually closes at 8 o'clock at night was open until two o'clock this morning and the little company of men there had agreed to spend the remaining hours of the night there. Although the story of hearing the shot after the tragedy at the Crain home was not throughly established the general belief in the Woodson neighborhod is that when this morning dawns that somewhere in the nearby fields or in some wooded spot the body of John W. Henry will be found, dead from his own hand. This is the opinion of some of those who believe that Henry was drink crazed and other who hold the same theory believed that by this morning the craze will have left him, that realization of the enormity of his crime will come to his mind and that he will either commit suicide or will come in and give himself up to the sheriff. Very few people hold to the opinion that he will make any effort to escape.

Sheriff Rogers and Deputies Andrews and Todd were to remain on guard at Ezard home all of the night. This morning if there are no special developments, that is if Henry has not surrendered himself, additional deputies will be sworn in and thorough search will be made for the man. Messages will also be sent

HOUSE AUTHORIZES STRIKE INVESTIGATION

MINES COMMITTEE WILL PROBE CONDITIONS IN COL., AND MICH.

Hearings Will Be Held in Strike Regions By Subcommittee, Which Will Soon Start on Western Trip—Seven Subjects of Inquiry Are Specified.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A sweeping investigation of strike conditions in the coal fields of Colorado and the copper district of Michigan was authorized by the house late today. By a vote of 151 to 150 the house adopted the resolution of Representative Keating of Colorado empowering the mines and mining committee to make inquiry as to conditions in Colorado and Michigan in which the federal government might be concerned.

Hearings will be conducted in the strike regions by a sub-committee or sub-committees, which will start west as soon as arrangements can be made for the trip. The resolution carries authority to subpoena witnesses for testimony under oath and to require the production of records and papers.

The investigation will be confined to the coal fields of the Colorado and to the copper mines of Michigan. Seven different subjects of inquiry are specified in the resolution:

"Whether the postal services are intertered with.

"Whether the immigration laws are being violated.

"Whether citizens have been arrested and tried contrary to the constitution or laws of the United States.

"Whether conditions have been caused by agreements and combinations contrary to law for controlling the production, sale and transportation of coal or copper.

"Whether arms and ammunition have been shipped into the fields for the purpose of excluding the products of the mines from competitive markets in inter-state trade.

"Whether peonage exists or has been maintained; if any or all these conditions exist; what causes led up to the conditions."

The debate on the resolution was brief, Representative Keating outlined conditions in the Colorado coal fields, declaring that the constitutional rights of citizens had been trampled upon and urged that the "radium of publicity be employed to cure this cancer."

Representative MacDonald of Michigan declared that the police power of the state of Michigan had been turned over to men imported by the copper companies. "The time has come for federal investigation," he said. "The authorities of the state are either unable or unwilling to subdue the disorder."

Representative Kelly of Michigan opposed the resolution. He said that if the investigation was to be made it should be conducted by the industrial commission.

Representative Hardwick of Georgia and Garrett of Tennessee contended that congress had no authority to make the investigation.

Discuss Amalgamation.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—The proposition for the consolidation of the United Mine Workers of America and the Western Federation of Miners was given a working basis by the Mine Workers convention here late today. The International executive board was empowered to appoint a committee to meet with a similiar committee from the Western Federation to discuss the amalgamation and if a plan should be agreed upon to submit it to the miners for a referendum vote. Two other important resolutions were adopted by the convention. One was a substitute offered by the resolutions committee refusing to endorse the immigration bill introduced in the United States senate by Senator Dillingham. It was setforth that a copy of the Dillingham bill had been received and that it was too voluminous to be read or considered by the convention. The substitute requested the international officers to work in conjunction with the executive committee for some bill which would stem the tide of immigration, so that the large army of unemployed already in the country could be given work. The second resolution recommended that the entire matter of establishing co-operative stores be referred back to the various districts with instructions that a campaign of education be carried on so that the miners could take definite steps at the next convention toward establishing a chain of co-operative stores. A movement to do away with the international executive board and substitute a committee composed of the presidents of the various districts was started when the constitution committee began its report. The plan was defeated after much debate.

An attempt was made to curtail the appointive power of the international president but the convention became unruly during the discussion and adjournment was taken before the matter was voted on. At present the constitution provides that the president shall appoint the organizers and the traveling auditors and it was sought to amend the organic law to make these officers elective. The discussion of this subject will be continued tomorrow.

PRESIDENT ORESTE OF HAITI, LEAVES HAITIEN CAPITAL

U.S. Battleship Starts for Port Au Prince as News Reaches Washington

BOARDS GERMAN SHIP

President of Haiti with Wife Takes Refuge Aboard the German Crusier Vineta

GERMAN & U. S. TROOPS LAND

Washington, Jan. 27.—Wireless news that President Oreste of Haiti had fled from his revolution-torn capital, "leaving no government" caused Rear-admiral Badger at Guantanamo, Cuba, tonight to start the Battleship South Carolina on a 500 mile forced draft run for Port au Prince.

Captain Robert L. Russell, commanding the South Carolina has orders to join the armoured Cruiser Montana which already has landed bluejackets at the Haitien capital and to take such steps as may be necessary to guard the lives and property of Americans and other foreigners. The battleship should reach the scene late tomorrow.

The official news of today's developments at Port au Prince came to Washington tonight in a report from Admiral Badger commanding the Atlantic fleet at Guantanamo, who had been in wireless communication with the Cruiser Montana. The dispatch said:

"The president of Haiti has abdicated, leaving no government. The Montana has landed 150 men in order to safeguard the lives and property of Americans and other foreigners. A German cruiser at Port au Prince also was landing a force at the same time. The South Carolina is leaving for Port au Prince. Captain Russell will act in his discretion for the protection of lives and property."

As senor naval officer on the scene, Captain Russell will direct the operations of the international force. No specific instructions will be sent to him from Washington as Secretary Daniels said tonight he had the utmost confidence in Captain Russell's discretion and ability to deal with the difficult situation. The captain was judge advocate general of the navy until he was detailed for sea duty recently.

Aboard German Cruiser.

Port au Prince, Haiti, Jan. 27.—The President of Haiti, Michael Oreste, fled from the capital today and took refuge aboard the German Cruiser Vineta. He was accompanied by his wife.

Fighting began in the city at 1 o'clock this afternoon. An hour later the president left the palace under escort and was conveyed in a launch to the warship lying in the harbor. Almost immediately detachments of bluejackets were landed from the United States Armored Cruiser Montana and the Vineta.

Firing continued throughout the afternoon and it was evident that the revolutionary movement which began in the north and spread to some of the southern towns had gained sufficient strength in the capital to threaten not only the power but the life of President Oreste. The new congress which met in extraordinary session yesterday failed to take adequate measures to check the revolution as had been hoped. It was conceded for a long time, however, that the position of the executive was weak. Opposed to him were Senator Davilmar Theodore, in command of the rebel troops at Cape Haitien and General Beilard, both of whom have a strong following.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION HOLDS HEARING IN BAIRD CASE

Charges Preferred by Secretary of State Harry Woods are Being Investigated.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 27.—A hearing before the state civil service commission of the case of Mrs. Estelle Baird, assistant tsate librarian against whom charges were preferred by Secretary of State Harry Woods, was held today, with Dr. A. B. Culhane of Rockford, member of the commission presiding. A dozen witnesses were heard, including the secretary who testified that Mrs. Baird was removed because of insubordination. The defendant claimed that she was first notified to quit by the secretary who told her that he wished to name a Democrat in her place. Later when the civil service ordered her reinstated, charges were preferred against her by the secretary of state. The commission's decision in the case is expected to be announced in a few days.

MRS. WILLIAM MORRIS DIES

London, Jan. 27.—Mrs. William Morris, the widow of the Socialist poet, died tonight. William Morris died in 1896.

STATEMENT DISCLOSES MILLION DOLLAR DEFICIT

REGULAR QUARTERLY DIVIDEND DECLARED BY U. S. STEEL CO.

Returns for Final Quarter of 1913 Are Somewhat Under Forecasts—Corporation More Than Earns its Charges in Course of Year as Surplus for Three Previous Quarters Is $32,337,743.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—A deficit of slightly more than a million dollars after payment of fixed charges and dividends was disclosed today in the statement of the United States steel corporation for the last quarter of 1913. That the corporation more than earned its charges in the course of the year was shown in the surplus reported for three previous quarters amounting to $32,337,743.

Earnings for the quarter aggregated $25,508,568 with total earnings of $23,036,349 and net income of $17,263,625.

These returns while somewhat under forecasts compare with $40,933,531 earnings, $38,450,400 total earnings and $29,622,186 net income in the preceding quarter. In the final quarter of 1912 earnings amounted to $37,726,312, total earnings to $35,185,557 and net income to $25,764,926.

Earnings of the year 1913 aggregated $147,118,460 with total earnings of $137,133,363. In 1912 earnings were $117,926,402; in 1911, $112,343,161 and in 1910, $141,054,754.

Officials of the company say that business has been increased in marked degree since the beginning of the year and January's operations are expected to show decided improvement over the last two months of 1913.

After meeting all charges thereby reducing the net balance to $30,539,215, the directors appointed from the surplus the sum of $15,000,000 for expenditures made and to be made, leaving a balance to carry forward of $15,539,215 as against $3,610,129 at the expiration of 1912.

The appropriation order today is the first of its kind since the final quarter of 1910 when $6,000,000 was set aside for additional property, new plants, etc., and advanced mining royalties, in connection with the Hill ore lands, the lease of which has since been cancelled. Regular quarterly dividends of 1 3-4 per cent on the preferred and 1 1-4 on the common shares were declared today. J. P. Morgan presided at the meeting in the absence of Chairman Elbert H. Gary. The vacancy in the board created by the recent resignation of Charles Steele of the Morgan banking house was not filled.

THUGS USE POSTAL SERVICE COMPANY'S TOURING CARS

Auto Washer In Company's Garage Says Touring Cars Were Well Provided With Sand Bags.

New York, Jan. 27.—A band of thugs slept in the garage and used the touring cars of Postal Transfer Service company during the strike of the mail wagon chauffeurs union last October, according to testimony today by Henry C. Benson, a witness for the defense in the case of the fifteen mail wagon chauffeurs former employes of the companies now on trial in the federal court for alleged conspiracy to obstruct the United States mails. Benson, an automobile washer in the company's garage said the touring cars used by the thugs had been well provided with sand bags, blackjacks and other weapons and that from two to three trips daily had been made by the gang members.

William P. Glock, one of the defendants testified that he had been attacked October 28th by thugs using touring cars of the Postal Transfer Service company. Another of the prisoners David Hockberg, president of the Chauffeurs' Union swore that on Oct. 30, thugs had attacked the headquarters of the union and had thrown him and two other strikers from the window of the place after threatening to shoot them.

William Peterka, one of the striking chauffeurs said that he had been beaten up by seven gunmen in the garage of the company when he went there to return his uniform. His father and brother corroborated his testimony.

SHOULD BE UNHAMPERED.

Washington, Jan. 27.—In deciding today not to recommend to the president the withdrawal from entry of large areas of lands in Colorado and Utah containig deposits of oil bearing bituminous shale, Secretary Lane announced his belief that private enterprises should be unhampered in finding a way for developing these resources. Mr. Lane believes it possible that methods will be discovered for utilizing the deposits in a way that will result in the building of a great new oil industry.

PEKIN MEN PRIZE WINNERS.

Champaign, Ill., Jan. 27.—Somers Brothers, of Pekin, today won the premium for the best single ear of corn at the contest of the Illinois Farmers' and Grain Dealers' association. They also had the best yellow ear. The "Edgehill Farm of Princeton" exhibited the best white ear. C. E. Russell of Monmouth won the grand sweepstakes for wheat. H. C. Hildreth of Sidell was awarded the association's championship cup.

SPRINGFIELD VOTERS FAVOR COMBINATION OF MUNICIPAL PLANTS

Proposition to Combine Water and Light Plants Carries 5708 to 5240

3000 WOMEN CAST VOTES

Commissioners Assert Competition with Private Lighting Co., and Lower Rates Will Follow

QUINCY VOTERS DEFEAT THE COMMISSION FORM

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 27.—By a vote of 5,908 to 5,240, the proposition to combine Springfield's municipally-owned down-town electric light plant with the city waterworks on the banks of the Sangamon river, carried today at a special initiative election.

This was the only proposition voted upon. Cities all over the country have been watching the struggle as it was said to involve municipal ownership and the commission form of government indirectly.

The immediate proposition voted upon was whether a $20,000 electric generator be installed at the water plant, but the campaign was clearly made upon the combination of the plants. Nearly three thousand women voted. There was much excitement at the polls, as it was contended by Commissioners Spaulding and Coe who led the fight for plant amalgamation, that competition with the private lighting company in the commercial field and lower rates for electricity would follow.

Mayor John S. Schnepp and Commissioners Hamilton and Davidson led the fight for maintenance of separate plants. Of the 2,965 women who voted, 1,795 or a majority of 625, favored amalgamation. Of the 8,183 men who voted, 4,113 or a majority of only 43, favored amalgamation. The winners tonight claim the results a victory for municipal ownership.

Defeat Commission Form.

Quincy, Ill., Jan. 27.—Twelve thousand six hundred and twenty voters of Quincy voted at a special election today on the commission form of government, the result being that the proposition was defeated by a majority of 7,020. Greatest interest centered in what was called "unknown quantity"—women's vote.

This developed one of the greatest surprises experienced by advocates of the commission form, as out of a total woman's vote of 5,561, those in favor numbered but 1,360, the opposition being 4,201.

The men's vote was 1,444 for the proposition, 5,623 against. One factor which entered into the election and which was largely responsible for the heavy vote in opposition to the commission form was that the impression had gone forth that advocates of the commission government were allied with anti-saloon league because petitions for local option election are being circulated.

In spite of strenuous denials that such was the case a large per centage of the voters could not be convinced that there was no secret alliance and voted accordingly.

Quincy is composed largely of Germans that believe in regulation of saloons, but are strongly opposed to "dry" community, the result being that in all precincts where the population consists large of Germans, the vote was overwhelming against the commission plan. Only two precincts out of twenty five in the city voted in favor of the plan and nearly the entire registration polled.

PASTOR AND WIFE ENTERTAIN CENTENARY OFFICIAL BOARD

Delightful Evening is Spent in Sunday School Rooms of Church—Elaborate Supper Served.

In response to an invitation from their pastor, Rev. G. W. Flagge and wife, members of the official board if Centenary M. E. church and their families gathered at the church Tuesday evening for a reception in the Sunday school rooms. The company assembled at 6:30 o'clock and found their places at the table by means of place cards which were placed at each plate, bearing the name of the guest and an appropriate verse. When all had taken their places Miss Clara Ranson sang the following verse:

"Be present at our table, Lord,
Be here and everywhere adored;
These creatures bless, and grant that we
May feast in Paradise with Thee."

Dr. F. A. McCarty, the district superintendent, invoked divine blessing and an elaborate menu was served by the third division of the ladies aid society, of which Mrs. T. B. Clampit is chairman. The menu consisted of chicken, dressing, potatoes in cases, cranberry jelly, celery, hot rolls, butter, coffee, cherry and filbert salad pineapple cream and cake. The supper was served in three courses.

After the banquet a number spoke of the different lines of activity of the church. A. C. Metcalf spoke for the Sunday school, Mrs. T. H. Rapp for the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, Miss Gertrude Atkins for the Young Woman's Home Missionary society, Mrs. Charles Rafferty for the Home Missionary society, Mrs. Flagge for the Epworth league and E. G. Saye spoke with reference to the special services which will be held preceding Easter. Dr. F. A. McCarty spoke on the reference to preparation for services before Easter and the general welfare of the church.

At the close of the evening the pastor and his wife were tendered a vote of thanks and after singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" the meeting was closed with the Lord's prayer.

MAY ALTER CONSTITUTION

London, Jan. 27.—A special despatch from Vienna says that the Austrial premier has informed the leaders of the German and Czech parties in the Bohemian diet that the Austrian government proposes to alter the Bohemian constitution in such a way as to enfranchise women.

WILL DEBATE COMMODITIES CLAUSE OF HEPBURN ACT

Lackawanna System Before U. S. Court on Charge of Violating Clause and Sherman Law.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—Whether the commodities clause of the Hepburn railroad act is effective in preventing a common carrier from transporting in inter-state commerce any articles in which the carrier has an interest and if so, if the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad company complied with the decision of the federal supreme court which declared the clause constitutional are the main points to be decided in the government Lackawanna suit argued in the United States court here today. The action was filed a year ago against the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad company and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal company to restrain them from violating the commodities clause and the Sherman anti-trust law. The government asked that the railroad be enjoined from transporting in inter-state commerce any coal produced or purchased by it and transferred by it before transportation to the coal company and also asked that existing agreements with regard to the purchase price of the coal be cancelled. The grounds upon which the government asked the relief are that the coal company is not a bona fide corporation but it is a mere "cloak" for the railroad company, and that the whole arrangement between the two is a violation both of the commodities clause and the anti-trust laws.

Organization Called "Sham."

Mr. Coudert in his argument said that the organizataion of the coal company was a "sham" a lawyer's device and a subterfuge to get around the law. If the arrangement between the railroad and the coal company is permitted to stand Mr. Coudert contended then the commodities clause is ineffective and only a monument."

Mr. Johnson speaking for the defendants pointed out that the coal is mined by chartered right of the railroad company and is sold at the mine to the coal corporation and that this coal is then shipped by the railroad to market. The question is, Mr. Johnson said does the coal belong to the railroad or the coal company while in transit? The government having referred to interlocking directorates in the two companies Mr. Johnson said he saw no crime in a man being a director in more than one corporation even if it did appear to some people that interlocking directorates were a "bade of shame." The government pointed out that sons of directors of the railroad had been among the incorporators of the coal company and Mr. Johnson in reply said factitiously that in "these days of interlocking directorate trust laws," he had found nothing that prevented nephews and nieces from acting in the same capacity. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Jenny who also spoke denied that there was a monopolization of anthracite coal by the Lackawanna railroad or the ocal company. The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western coal company was organized in 1909 after the supreme court declared the commodities clause, constitutional. The railroad company declared a dividend of fifty per cent half of which was used by railroad stockholders in organizing the coal company. It was stated by counsel that approximately four and one half tons of coal transported by the Lackawanna railroad goes west to one ton that goes east to tide water.

CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT

Washington, Jan. 27.—William F. McCombs, Democratic National chairman had a long conference with president tonight at the latter's request. Mr. McCombs said afterwards that various state situations were discussed at length preparatory to some extent to the fall congression al campaign. He remarked that he had told the president a good deal about New York state Democracy and his recent visits to Albany and reiterated his complimentary references to the administrataion of Governor Glynn. Mr. McCombs declined to talk of reports that he would be a candidate for the United States senate and said he did not know who would be named ambassador to France.

FILE FORMAL PETITION FOR REVIEW OF CONVICTION

Counsel for Dynamiters Claim Federal Court Committed Numerous Errors in the Trial.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Formal petition was filed in the supreme court today for a review of the conviction of Frank M. Ryan and twenty three other members of the International association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers on charges of conspiracy growing out of the dynamiting of the Las Angeles Times building and other structures. Counsel for the convicted men claim the federal district court for Indiana committed numerous errors in the trial and that the seventh circuit court of appeals failed to correct them. Contending that the courts erred in permitting a conviction on the "uncorroborated" evidence of an accomplice, Ortie E. McManigal who pleaded guilty to the conspiracy charges, the attorneys today urged that since laws of the various states were at variance on this point the supreme court should settle the question by reviewing the labor men's case.

They argued also that the constitutional provision against placing persons in jeopardy twice for the same offense had been violated by the government indicting the men both on a charge of conspiracy and on a charge of transporting dynamite on interstate transporting dynamite over the statute of limitations barred the prosecutions.

"PIE-BOOK" GREATLY DESIRED BY N. Y. GRAFT INVESTIGATOR

Highway Commission Is Said to Have Kept Record of Positions Parceled Out to Political Leaders.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27.—A "pie-book" in which Highway Commissioner John N. Carlisle is said to have kept a record of positions he parcelled out to various political leaders is greatly desired by James W. Osborne, for use in his graft inquiry.

The first intimation of the existence of the book came today at the inquiry when Theron Aiken of Fort Johnson Montgomery county, a former congressman, spoke of it. Akin said that last summer said he made to Carlisle to appear for the transfer of John B. Wright, an assistant highway engineer and in the course of the conversation the commissioner produced the book and pointed out to Akin just how much patronage he had obtained. Incidentally Wright was not transferred.

"I certainly want that book," Mr. Osborne said as soon as he heard the testimony.

ENGLISH INSTRUCTOR STABBED BY THIEVES.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Thomas J. Boosworth, English instructor in the Chicago Latin school was stabbed, probably fatally tonight, by two negro thieves he surprised in the school building. Bosworth ran from the building to a nearby drug store, gasped "thieves" and fainted. A satchel containing several silver cups won by the athletic teams was on the floor of the school office.

Bosworth had been cut on the neck almost from ear to ear. The police said the cuts apparently were made by a razor as they were very deep.

COMMISSION ORGANIZES.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 27.—The state art commission recently appointed by Governor Dunne met here today and organized by electing Martin Roche of the firm of Holabird and Roch, Chicago, chairman and Senator H. S. Magill of Springfield, secretary. In conference with the governor the committee decided to proceed at once with the erection of bronze statues of Lincoln and Douglas on the capitol grounds in Springfield, under the terms of a bill passed by the last legislature. The statues probably will be unveiled during the Illinois Centennial celebration in this city in 1918.

REFUSES TO CONFIRM APPOINTMENT OF MEYER.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The senate late today refused to confirm the appointment of Otto R. Meyer to be receiver of public moneys at Dickinson, North Dakota. Charges filed against Meyer alleged that he had violated the prohibition laws of the state by conducting a bar in his hotel and afterward by the sale of liquor in his drug store.

WILSON ESTABLISHES CANAL ZONE GOV'T.

ISSUES EXECUTIVE ORDER APPOINTING COL. GOETHALS GOVERNOR

It Is Believed the Plan Submitted by Goethals Through the Secretary of War Has Been Followed—Government Would Control all Features of Administration.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Organization of a permanent government for the Panama canal zone to supersede the Isthmian canal on April 1st, was authorized by President Wilson today with the announcement that the nomination of Col. George W. Goethals to be first governor of Panama would be sent to the senate in a few days.

Colonel Goethals' idea of a one-man government is carried out in the executive order which was made public by Secretary Garrison immediately after today's cabinet meeting. The authority of the governor is to be supreme under the secretary of war. Official notification of his selection was cabled to Colonel Goethals at Panama. Secretary Garrison, who personally told the Colonel he would be made the first governor when he visited the canal zone last summer said he was confident there would be no question about acceptance. The change in title will mean a loss of $5,000 a year to the head of the zone as the governor's salary will be $10,000 and he now receives $15,000 as chairman of the commission. Secretary Garrison announced that it was proposed to receive the members of the commission with the exception of Colonel Goethals into a new commission to arrange for and conduct the ceremonies incident to the opening of the canal. Congress will be asked to provide the necessary legislation. As today's executive's order authorizes the designation of a number of such officers of the army as well as a few naval officers for duty in the various departments of the permanent canal government but the act of congress provides that they shall serve at their regular army and naval salaries.

PANAMA, Jan. 27.—The news of the signing today by President Wilson of an executive order establishing a permanent government for the canal zone with Colonel Goethals as governor, reached here late today and brought with it a general feeling of relief at the ending of the uncertainty. When word was conveyed to Colonel Goethals that he had been appointed governor, he expressed pleasure but declined to make any comment in the absence of official notification. It is believed in official circles here that the plan submitted by Colonel Goethals through the secretary of war has been followed. This would give the governemnt control of all features of the administration, more important officials being either navy or army officers experienced in the work of the respective departments of which they will have charge.

Discuss Canal.

Washington, Jan. 27.—How to dispose of the Panama canal tolls question was the subject uppermost in discussion about the capitol today when the attitude of President Wilson outlined to the senate foreign relations committee last night became public. The president's position was asserted to be that the provision of the Panama canal act granting toll exemption to American coast wise vessels is in violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty which proclaims that the canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and war of all nations "on terms of entire equality" and that charges of traffic should be just and equitable.

Before any definite action is taken in congress it was said tonight by administration leaders a public statement from the president on the question will be awaited. President Wilson himself, after the night conference with the senators said he would proclaim his views on the subject at a future time.

Three courses are open to congress in the matter.

Great Britain which has persistently opposed the toll exemption for American ships, has offered to arbitrate the question as to its being a violation of the Hay-Paucefote treaty. The majority is said to be opposed to this maining that the United States should settle the issue for itself.

Another course is to carry into effect the resolution submitted by Representative Adamson, chairman of the inter-state and foreign committee which would suspend for two years the operation the proposition exempting American ships from the payment of tolls. Should this be adopted diplomatic negotiations could continue in the meantime.

The third proposal is that congress repeal the free toll provision, recognizing that it is in violation of the Hay-Paucefote treaty. Some Democratic senators who voted for free tolls now are ready to vote for the repeal.

Some senators indicated today that the president would urge repeal of the free toll provision but those who talked to the president either did not divulge or were not certain what course the chief executive would pursue.

Diplomatic correspondence over the tolls question which has been in progress since Great Britain lodged formal protest in July 1912, virtually was suspended after Ambassador Bryce delivered a note last February, just before the expiration of the Taft administration reporting the British position.

Then came the change of administration and before resigning his post as British Ambassador to Washington, Mr. Bryce had a parting interview with President Wilson in which the subject of canal tolls was discussed. It was currently reported then that the ambassador had received from President Wilson some assurance that he would use his best efforts to bring about removal of the discrimination in favor of American vessels.

APPLICATION WITHDRAWN.

Topeka, Kans., Jan. 26.—An application for permission to increase freight rates from 10 to 20 per cent on produce and creamery products which had been made by Western railroads was withdrawn by representatives of the road today at a hearing before an examiner of the inter-state commerce commission.

The hearing was for the purpose of investigating the merits of the application and forty produce dealers from Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Colorado, Missouri and North and South Dakota were present to protest against the proposed increase. The action of the railroad representatives in withdrawing their request brought the hearing to an abrupt end.

Miss Ella Minter leaves Friday for a two weeks' stay in New York, where she will spend her time in buying the new spring styles in Coats, Suits and Dresses for her department at F. J. Waddell & Co.'s Store.

COURTS DOMINANT POWER IN EVERY STATE IN UNION

Chief Justice Clark Warns Fellow Jurists to Take Heed Lest Their Power Prove Their Undoing.

New York, Jan. 27.—Declaring that all the power of government both federal and state lies at the feet of a "judicial olegarchy" composed of the lawyers of the United States, Chief Justice Walter Clark of the North Carolina supreme court in an address delivered tonight warned his fellow jurists throughout the country to take heed lest their power prove their own undoing.

Justice Clark's' theme was "government by judges."

In part he said:

"In this country, as in all countries the control of the government is in the hands of a few. We have learned that the form of government amounts to little. The real question is 'where does the control of government reside?'

"The overwhelming preponderence of the judiciary was unexpectedly created in 1803 by a decision of the supreme court of the United States—without a line in the constitution to authorize it—when that body assumed the right to veto any act of congress they chose to hold unconstitutional. This doctrine was promptly seized upon as a boon by the special interests and by all who believed at heart in the government of the many for the benefit the few. It has practically made the courts the dominant power in every state in the union. Whenever any progressive statute has not been in accord with the economic views entertained by the courts they have generally exercised their power to declare such statute unconstitutional because it was not due process of law."

In warning his brother judges against over-stepping their authority the speaker declared that "Mr. Justice Harlan has well said: 'When the American people come to the conclusion that the judiciary of this land is usurping to itself the functions of the legislative department of the government we will find trouble. Ninety millions of people—all sorts of people—are not going to submit to the usurpation of the judiciary of the functions of other departments of the government and the power on its part to declare what is the public policy of the United States.'"

MAY CALL PRESIDING JUDGE AS WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE

Counsel For Convicted Man Is Placed on Trial on Charge of Receiving Bribe.

New York, Jan. 27.—The calling of the presiding judge as a witness for the defense is fore-shadowed by the action of counsel for Joseph Cassidy, former Democratic leader of Queens county who was placed on trial in the supreme court in Brooklyn today on the charge of receiving a bribe for giving William Willett Jr., once a Democratic congressman a judiciary nomination in 1911. Willett last week was convicted of having purchased his opportunity to run for the supreme court. He will be sentenced on Friday.

Robert H. Elder, counsel for Cassidy tried to serve Walter J. Cox, the trial justice with a subpoena today. The justice who also presides at Willetts trial refused to accept the document, however, saying facts must be presented in the form of sworn statements giving reasons why the defense desired him to testify. Mr. Elder complied with this request late today and Justice Jay Cox will decide whether he will consent to appear.

PASSENGERS BADLY SHAKEN WHEN FERRY BOATS COLLIDE

Municipal Ferry Boats Collide in Fog Near St. George Staten Island Ferry Slip.

New York, Jan. 28.—Two thousand ferry boat passengers were badly shaken up tonight when in a thick fog the two municipal ferry boats, Brooklyn and Manhattan collided near the St. George Staten Island ferry slip. Many of the passengers were thrown from their seats and slightly injured. The presence of mind of the cooler men and the crew averted a panic.

Late tonight another ferry boat the Scandinavia collided with a Lackawanna railroad boat. None of the 150 passengers were hurt however.

The Scandinavia was rammed just above the water line and was kept afloat by the railroad barge remaining where it struck. River traffic was greatly hampered all day by the fog.

Of eleven steamships held up by the fog only three managed to reach their piers, the German liner George Washington, the Porto Rico Liner, San Juan and the French liner Rochambeau. Fog bound down the bay for tonight were the Rotterdam, Larentic, Minnetonka, California, Comal, Concho, City of Montgomery and the Havana.

OLD EXEMPTION NOT ALLOWED.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The treasury department announced tonight that corporations cannot deduct any portion of the specific exemption authorized under the old corporation tax law when making payments of the tax under the new income tax law. Under the old law a specific exemption of $5,000 was made and many corporations have proceeded on the theory that they were entitled to deduct one-sixth of that amount, basing their contention on the fact that the income tax is not levied for the year 1913 during the months of January and February.

CARRANZA WILL DIRECT CIVIL GOVERNMENT FROM CHIHUAHUA

Many Radical Changes Instituted in Old Order By General Villa.

Chihuahua, Jan. 27.—While the rebel troops were moved southward today in preparation for the attack on Torreon one of the most magnificent private homes in this city was put in order for General Carranza the head of the revolution, who according to report soon is to arrive from the state of Sinaloo. It is expected General Carranza will resume full charge of and direct the civil government from Chihuahua which will become the provisional capital of the republic.

Many radical changes in the old order have been instituted by General Villa. The import duty on rice, sugar, coffee and cotton goods has been removed to encourage the shipment of these supplies into the rebel territory where the people are in need of food and clothing. All newspapers which have shown a tendency to oppose the revolution have been suppressed the latest being La Libertad, whose editor was arrested. The arrival here of Bonales Sandoval said to represent Felix Diaz causes much comment. Sandoval's real mission in coming to see General Villa was not disclosed. He was one of those who sided against President Madero just before the latter was killed. General Villa has said he entered the present revolution partly to avenge Madero's death. It was reported that Sandoval because of his boldness in coming here already has been arrested.

Held Up By Bandits.

Juarez, Mex., Jan. 27—Officials of the Mexico Northwestern railroad received word today that a train filled with American ranchmen and Mexicans which left Juarez Monday had been held up by bandits near Guzman, eight miles south of the border.

A section foreman telegraphed from Guzman that the bandits under Maximo Castillo had burned the bridges behind the train and had taken the passengers captive after robbing them. Anxiety was felt for the Americans who were returning to mines and lumber camps, because of reported threats by Castillo that he would kill all foreigners. How many people were on the train was not known. A force of rebels has been sent to drive the bandits out of the country.

Charged With Conspiracy.

Mexico City, Jan. 27.—Afidencio Hernandez and Guillermo Mexueiro, natives of the state of Oaxaca have been arrested on charge of being implicated in the plot to overthrow the federal government. Both Mexueiro and Hernandez were only identified with the political fortunes of General Felix Diaz. They are the most prominent of those so far arrested in connection with the alleged plot. None of the others in the hands of the police is of national fame and General Fernandio Gonzalez according to some of the published reports has been executed has as a matter of fact been in Europe for some time.

The arrest of Hernandez and Mexueiro tends to give strength to the rumor which has been current here that General Diaz has a new revolution under way. Both were arrested in Vera Cruz, where they were with General Diaz when Diaz fled the country in November. Mexueiro was released for lack of evidence. He is credited with having extraordinary influence in the state of Oaxaca and Hernandez is the man whom the Madero government used to advantage in suppressing the revolt in that state, most of the Indians laying down their arms when he came among them. The police continue their investigation of the conspiracy but at the national palace neither President Huerta nor any of his official family appears to be worried, all seeming to regard the incident as of little consequence. The reports of summary executions are officially denied. President Huerta today carried out his program as if no danger was impending. He took lunch with the officers of the Japanese Cruiser Idzumo and later appeared at a cafe for a cup of tea accompanied only by an aide.

Result of Discovery of Plot.

Vera Cruz, Jan. 27.—The arrest yesterday of Theodore Dehesa, exgovernor of the state of Vera Cruz, is said to be the result of the discovery of a conspiracy, wide-spread throughout the republic having as its object a revolutionary movement in favor of the presidential candidacy of General Egunie Rascon, the former candidate of the Catholic party for the vice-presidency and later governor of Yucatan. The Mexican Gunboat Zaragoza is still anchored in the harbor. It is said the mysterious passenger for whom she is waiting will arrive from Mexico City before dawn.

FIGHT DIFFICULT FIRE.

New York, Jan. 27.—With chemical manufacturing plants on either side and a nitrogylcerine factory across the street, Brooklyn firemen on shore and from the harbor fought a four alarm blaze in the fruit packing establishment of Hills Brothers late today. A heavy fog manteled land and water keeping the smoke from rising readily and the firemen worked in an atmosphere at times so dense that they were unable to discern the factory windows in front of them. The property loss was estimated at more than $750,000.

The flames were confined to the fruit company's plant.

TEN LABORERS SUFFOCATED.

Dante, Va., Jan. 27.—Ten laborers, two whites and eight negroes met death by suffocation when fire broke out today in the tunnel which the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railroad is constructing on its line between here and Elkhorn City, Ky.

ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION PLANS CRYSTALIZE QUICKLY

Committees Agree to Expedite President's Program and Will Start Hearings Immediately.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Anti-trust legislation plans crystalized quickly today in the house committees. Both the inter-state and foreign commerce and the judiciary committees agreed to expedite certain of the president's program and to start hearings immediately the judiciary on Thursday and the inter-state commerce Friday of the week. The inter-state commerce committee set aside consideration of all other general legislation until after the anti-trust measures are out of the way.

Representative Adamson issued a statement concerning the much discussed question of committee jurisdiction of the pending measures. Under the house rules the statement said "all bills which seek to regulate the conditions of the inter-state and foreign comerce are within the jurisdiction of the inter-state and foreign commerce commission. The anti-trust law primarily is a criminal provision, though incidentally and collaterally some civil remedies are provided by it. Under the house rules the judiciary committee has judisdiction over judicial procedure and civil and crimial law generally."

Mr. Adamson said the hearings before his committee would be on the general propositions and not simply on the individual bills of which many are pending. The senate inter-state commerce committee will meet tomorrow to begin consideration of the inter-state commerce bill and discuss bills to supplement the Sherman act.

NEWS NOTES OF THE FARM

Buys Nine Cars of Feeders.—John Kirby, of Goose Creek township, in Piatt county, has brought in nine car loads of western cattle from Omaha to fatten for the market. He recently shipped 200 head to Chicago.

Uses Milking Machine.—Charles Belt, a While Heath farmer, uses a milking machine and says it has been a success, milking thirty cows in less than an hour. Noble Heath, another large milk shipper of that vicinity, has bought a milking machine.

Want Farm Adviser.—Mason county has started a movement to get a farm adviser, James A. Riner being appointed to notify the farmers and progressive citizens and get their help in the matter. Another meeting will be held in February.

Uses Three Machines.—Sam Cox, of Arcola, the contractor who does all the road work of the township, uses three pieces of machinery, a mud presser, a scraper and a farm roller. The roller is used just as the ground begins to freeze sufficient to keep the roller on top, while the team will break through.

Land Prices Down.—The Dan Keeler farm near Ivesdale sold recently to John Grady for $200 per acre, and this price is said to be $25 less than it would have brought a year ago. The farm of eighty acres was sold at auction, and the poor crops of the past year are thought to have influenced the bidding. A forty-acre farm near Argenta sold at auction to Charles McGuire, of Emery, for $189.50 per acre.

The Rural Problem.—"The rural problem is to create and keep alive out in the open country those institutions and conditions that will make the young people wish to stay on the farm. We have outgrown deficient middle-aged course of study. I believe the answer is consolidation, and it must be brought about by the farmers." Thus spoke Prof. E. L. Holton of the Kansas argicultural college at the state farmers' meeting.

Encourage Pork Raising.—The Department of Agriculture is endeavoring to interest the youngest generation on southern farms in the breeding of good hogs. It is the object of the department to encourage the young men to raise at least enough pork for home consumption and, if possible, a surplus for the market. A shortage of beef means an increased demand for pork, and it seems reasonable that there should be a ready demand for all the available supply. This means money in the pocket of the boy hog raiser.

Save Farmers Money.—Prof. S. D. Gromer, U. of M., says that co-operative insurance companies in Missouri saved the farmers more than half a million dollars last year. The co-operative companies carried 80 millions of insurance at a cost to the farmer of 30 cents on $100, while the old line companies charge $1 per $100. In the state insurance meeting there was not a word of dissatisfaction from any delegate. They all seemed sure of the success of their companies. This is one of the successes which makes Mr. Gromer believe even more firmly in the ultimate success of co-operation among farmers.

Give Roads Time to Dry.—Some of the men who are greatly interested in the work of dragging roads in Morgan county and keeping them in better condition have troubles to contend with. There are many drivers of vehicles who fail to observe the law which makes it an offense punishable by fine to drive on a newly dragged road which is wet. In such cases the proper way to do is to drive along one side of the road until the drying process has taken place. There have been a number of instances where the results of dragging have been lost just because careless drivers traveled over the road when it was wet instead of going to one side. In the winter time the law requires that time be given for a dragged road to dry out or freeze over. Out on some portions of the Mound road there have been a number of complaints on account of violations of this kind. Usually the damage is done through carelessness but that by no means lessens the evil results. Some road workers and officials have had their patience severely tested in this regard and intend in future violations to have fines assessed.

Neighborhood Nearest Heaven.—Every good farmer wishes to live in a good neighborhood, among people who farm well, who are intelligent and think straight on all important subjects, and who live right; by which we mean discharging faithfully their obligations to their families, their neighbors and the community. A neighborhood of this sort of people can't help but be a good neighborhood, and the farmer who has a farm in such a neighborhood, a good wife and healthy children, is as near heaven as he will get on this side of the other world.

It is natural, therefore, that good farmers should strike to make their neighborhood a better neighborhood. They know perfectly well that the reading of that neighborhood largely determines the character of the neighborhood. The reading of the children in the neighborhood determines very largely the character which that neighborhood will bear in the course of the next ten or fifteen years. If they allow their children to read papers or books now that are mushy or sensational or conduits of pollution, that neighborhood in ten or fifteen years from now will be anything but a good neighborhood.—Wallaces' Farmer.

GREAT MISSIONARY GATHERING IS NEAR.

Arrangements are daily being perfected for the great missionary gathering to be held in this city Sunday and Monday next. In the morning Sunday there will be special services in the various churches when addresses will be made by the illustrious visitors; in the afternoon at four there will be a union mass meeting at State Street church and in the evening a union meeting at Central Christian church on the west side and Centenary church on the east side.

Services will also be conducted Monday and the great feature of that day will be a banquet for men only at Grace M. E. church in the evening and it it is hoped that five hundred men will sit down at the tables on that occasion.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS' BIRTHDAY

Washington, Jan. 27.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor entered upon his 65th year today and in celebration of the anniversary many of the foremost leaders of organized labor in America gathered here for a dinner in his honor. Mr. Gompers was born in London and in early life followed the trade of a cigarmaker. He joined the union of his craft at the age of 15 and has ever since been active in trades union affairs. As a young man he came to America and for some years followed his trade in Boston. He was one of the founders of the American Federation of Labor and, with the intermisison of one year, has been the president of the organization continuously since 1882.

YOUNGBLOOD PRAIRIE.

Mrs. Alice McLaughlin was visiting relatives in Jacksonville Friday.

Quite a number of conversions are reported at the Baptist revival meetings.

John Lemmons and Miss Mabel Daniels, both highly respected young people, were married Friday.

Harry Fanning of Murrayville precinct has bought the stock of goods of the Nortonville Mercantile Co., and has taken possession after invoicing.

Work on Bert McNeely's large new barn is progressing rapidly.

Leonard Dalton's little son, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is convalescing.

C. F. Story is making some ditches to straighten the creek through his land.

Thomas Fanning has added a new barn to his property at Nortonville.

We hear a rumor that Dr. C. E. Walker is to move to Murrayville. This will be heard with regret by his friends, of whom he has made many while here, being a successful doctor and pleasant man.

The revival services which have been in progress at the Baptist church closed Friday with thirteen addition to the church.

J. E. Rawlings, of Jacksonville was transacting business here part of the week.

TRY WOMAN ON MURDER CHARGE.

New Orleans, Jan. 27—The selection of a ury to hear the trial of Augusta Agnes Edwards, the young woman stenographer who shot and killed George W. Riehl last summer, was begun today. The trial will be a speedy one, it is believed, as few witnesses will be called by either side. Miss Edwards, who is of striking appearance, was formerly a cloak model in a department store in this city. Evidence will be introduced by the defense to show that her reputation was unblemished up to the time she resigned her place in the store to become a stenographer in Riehl's office. The girl claims to have been led astray by Riehl, who was a married man with grown children. When his attentions ceased, Miss Edwards, unable to gain admission to his office, awaited him on a street in the business section and shot him to death in the view of many persos, whose lives also were imperiled by the bullets as the frenzied girl emptied the chambers of the weapon in rapid succession.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES.

At the close of the morning service Jan. 25th, the pastor, Davis W. Martin, ordained as elders of the Christian church at Concord S. M. Henderson and George J. R. Wouff. Brother Martin, assisted by the elders, then proceeded to ordain as deacons M. O. Smith, C. O. Bayless Roy Abernathy, William Goffinett and Jesse Morrison. The service was brief but full of meaning to those who took part. They will now go forward in the discharge of their important duties with renewed courage and earnestness. L. L. Zerby, now in Eureka, is also an elder of this congregation. Earl Abernathy was the only deacon not present. Brother and Sister T. W. Bass go to Eureka this week, where Tom will study for the ministry. They are good Christian workers and we wish them success Brother Bass expects to be ordained later on the the Concord Christian church.

SENATE CONFIRMS NOMINATION OF HENRY M. PINDELL OF PEORIA

Nomination of Peoria Editor to be Ambassador to Russia is Confirmed by Senate After Long Delay.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The nominations of Henry M. Pindell of Peoria, Ills., to be ambassador to Russia and Winfred T. Denison of Portland, Maine, to be member of the Philippine commission and secretary of the interior of the Philipines, were confirmed by the senate today.

Mr. Pindell's confirmation was delayed pending investigation of certain published letters alleged to have passed between him and Senator Lewis purporting to reveal an arrangement by which Mr. Pindell was to have the St. Petersburg post for one year. The senate foreign relations committee recently voted to recommend his confirmation. Mr. Denison was nominated last December to succeed Dean C. Worcester as a member of the Philippine commission and to be secretary of the interior of the islands. His nomination was held up at the instance of Senator Smoot pending investigation of protests of Thaddeus Harretts, a member of the United States board of general appraisers who was removed from office by President Taft on the findings of an investigating committee of which Mr. Denison was the head.

Mr. Denison was also one of the government's counsel in the sugar fraud trials.

FUNERAL OF REV. W. L. TARBET.

The funeral of the late W. L. Tarbet was conducted Monday at ten a. m. at the late home of the deceased at Divernon, the pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. King officiating assisted by Dr. Penhallegon of Decatur and Dr. Bergen of Springfield. It was all in accordance with the especial desire of Dr. Tarbet that no eulogy be pronounced on his life, work and character. Passages of scripture which he had selected were read and commented on and hymns of his choice sung. A large audience gathered to pay a tribute of respect to one so widely and favorably known and there were many who had known and loved him for many years.

A great many flowers were contributed by his friends and among the offerings was a beautiful piece sent by the officials of the Illinois Central railroad as a compliment to Mr. Tarbet's son who is also an official of the road.

As many persons were obliged to drive to Virden and others to leave on early afternoon trains the residents of Divernon very thoughtfully prepared lunch for all from a distance which was gratefully accepted.

Among those present from Jacksonville and vicinity were Irvin Stevenson, W. H. Luken, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Drury, Mr. and Mrs. James Dobyns, James Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. William Scott and many from Springfield.

Dr. Tarbet was a firm friend of President Lincoln and was one of the guard of honor at the great funeral in Springfield standing by the casket as the vast concourse filed by.

DR. J. H. DAVIS DEAD.

Mrs. E. L. Kronk, the obliging clerk at the Grand Hotel, has been summoned to Seymour, Indiana to attend the funeral of her uncle, Dr. Joseph H. Davis and expected to start early this morning.

William Strawn and Louis Gunderson were visitors in the city from Springfield yesterday.

MORGAN.

Miss Ruth Hutches and Riley Taylor were Jacksonville visitors Saturday.

Herman Rahe and Alfred Anderson each shipped a car load of hogs to St. Louis Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Taylor were Bluffs visitors last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Coulson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. James Hutches and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williams attended a social gathering at Rev. C. D. Hougham's in Chapin last Thursday evening, given for the church officers and their wives. All report a very pleasant evening and at a late house elaborate refreshments were served.

T. H. Stone and his men completed a large barn for Lynch Bros., south of Chapin, last Saturday. They were less than two weeks in putting up the entire structure.

John Taylor and Chester Williams attended the party at Lloyd Lukeman's, near Chapin, Thursday night.

Among those from here to attend the etnertainment and box social at Victory school were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nergenah and son, Miss Ella Daly, Riley and Charles H. Taylor and Wilbur and Walter Williams.

Charles Anderson and Charles Drake delivered hogs to W.S. Brownlow of Chapin last Tuesday.

ALL PERSONS DESIRING TO BID on the same may have the privilege of going through the stock and examining the invoice thereof at any time prior to the sale.

DATED AT Jacksonville, Illinois, this 27th day of January, a. d., 1914.

George J. Orear,
Trustee.

AN EXPLANATION.

In presenting the report of the treasurer of the ladies' hospital aid society an annoying error was unintentionally committed. In reporting the collections for furnishing of the nurses' home the treasurer wrote collections:

$305.50 collected by Mrs. Fell.

$70.00 collected by Miss Dora Moore.

$50.00 collected by Miss Ida Venner.

$50.00 collected by Mrs. Miller Weir.

Mrs. Edward Kinney,
Mrs. Robert Fanning,
Mrs. Kate H. Hollinger.

Opposite the last four names there was a bracket at the right which the reporter failed to notice and so erroneously credited the last $50,000 to Mrs. Weir only. All four of the last named ladies are among the faithful workers for the hospital and are entitled to full credit.

AFTER FIVE YEARS

Winthrop Child Was Restored To Health by Vinol.

"Five years ago our little girl had what a little sufferer she was for left her subject to bronchitis and stomach trouble. She has been almost constantly under medical treatment. I have tried also two or three remedies containing cod liver oil but found her stomach rebelled against the oil. Reading your description of Vinol I decided to try it and did so with most astonishing results. I cannot begin to tell you how she has improved because you do not know Mrs. Katheryn Cosgrave Koenig five years. She has gained ten pounds since she commenced to take Vinol, and the story of what Vinol has done for her is only half told in this letter." Mrs. Adelaide Mulloy, Winthrop, Mass.

Vinol contains all the healing curative properties of cod liver oil, without the oil, and tonic iron added. That is why it helped this little girl after other remedies had failed.

We ask mothers of weak, sickly children to try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to help them. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD---NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Makes You Feel Fine at Once—Don't Stay Stuffed-up! Take it Now.

Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air pasages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, takes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure your get the genuine.—Adv.

"CASCARETS" CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

Get a 10 cent box now.

Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No odds how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing too.—Adv.

AVOID CATARRH

Breathe Hyomei—It Medicates the Air You Breathe and Instantly Relieves.

Why continue to suffer from catarrh, stopped up head, husky voice, and other troubles of the breathing organs, when there is an absolutely certain, scientific remedy at hand.

Hyomei is the remedy. It is a pleasant, harmless and antiseptic medication which you breathe through a small inhaler. Breathing a few times daily through the inhaler charges the air with this germ killing antiseptic. Catarrhal discharges, sniffles, foul breath, watery eyes and the formation of crusts in the nose are promptly relieved by this medicated air.

It is guaranteed to do it, or money back.

A complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a strong, hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of Hyomei costs only $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, are only 50 cents each. Druggists everywhere sell Hyomei.

Use Hyomei for bronchitis, coughs and cold in the head, husky voice, croup of infants, and any inflammatory disease of the breathing organs.—Adv.

THREE CLEVELAND PITCHERS DESERT TO FEDERAL LEAGUE

Falkenberg, Blanding and Kahler Are Reported to Have Signed Three Year Contracts at Big Increases.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—The desertion of three Cleveland pitchers to the Federal League was admitted here this afternoon by President C. W. Somers of the Naps. The three are Fred Falkenberg, who is said to have signed with Indianapolis; Fred Blanding, who joins the Toronto club and Fred Kahler, signed with Pittsburgh.

"I guess they've jumped," said Mr. Somers, who paid a visit to President Johnson of the American League. He did not say if baseball or other business brought him to Chicago but followers of the game hinted his trip had something to do with the proposed transfer or sale of the Toledo Franchise in the American association.

Federal League officials following their recent decision declined to comment on the report of the jump of the Cleveland pitchers but rooters generally considered the new organization's acquisition a triumph, since the three pitchers, particularly Falkenberg were among the most effective of the Naps' staff last year. Increases of salary over their last year's and three year contracts are said to have been given the three.

President Gilmore of the Federal League left this afternoon for Toronto on League business. He may visit other towns in the circuit on his way back to Chicago.

President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals said that John T. Powers, former president of the Federals was organizing a new league to include Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis and Kansas City.

John Evers, manager of the Chicago National club is on his way home from Tampa with the signed contracts of Tom Leach, George Pierce and Art Phelan, according to word received at the club headquarters. Phelan and Pierce have signed contracts for three years and Leach for one, according to President Murphy.

Attell to Meet Kilbane.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Abe Attell, the former feather-weight champion today received a message from San Francisco saying he had been matched with Johnny Kilbane, present champion for a bout for the title. The date probably will be March 20th. Attell lost the title to Kilbane Feb. 22nd, 1912.

Hartzell Loyal to Yanks.

New York, Jan. 27.—A report from Chicago that Roy Hartzell utility man of the New York American League club had opened negotiations with President Gilmore of the Federal League was denied by President Farrell tonight when he made public a letter received from Hartzell dated at Denver, Colo., Jan. 24th, in which the player says:

"Your terms accepted and contract received. Will sign and report at Hot Springs, Ark., on Feb. 15th. Thank you for the raise in salary. I will sure play my best to earn it. Good luck to you and the club this year."

Cobb Will Train With Tigers.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 27.—The Detroit American League baseball club today received a letter from Ty Cobb which stated that he would join the regulars at Gulfport, Miss., the spring training camp some time during March. Cobb has seldom trained with his team-mates in the spring time and his letter is believed to be in line with his recently made statement that Detroit would have the full benefit of his services in 1914.

The signed contract of William Purtell, infielder was received today.

Chicago Man Wins.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Jan. 27.—The only senor event skated in the international outdoor races here today was the three quarter miles which Robert McLean of Chicago won. Tmie 2:14 4-5.

Cooney Joins Red Sox.

Boston, Jan. 27.—James E. Cooney shortstop for the Worcester club of the New England League last year, sent his signed contract to the Boston Americans today. Cooney is 18 years old.

QUARTETTE PLEASED

The Short quartette of Murrayville made their second appearance in Winchester last Monday night in connection with a band concert from Merritt, and if possible were more pleasing than before. They have won their way into the hearts of the people in this city who will always welcome them back.—Winchester Times.

LACKAWANA SUIT COMES UP.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—The government's suit against the Delaware, Lackawana & Western railroad and the Delaware, Lackawana & Western Coal company came up for argument in the United States district court today. The action, which is designed to break up the alleged anthracite monopoly, was brought under the commodities clause of the Hepburn act, forbidding a common carrier to engage in business as a producer in commodities transported over its lines. Violation of the Sherman anti-trust law is also alleged. The suit was started in February of last year by Attorney General Wickersham, after the supreme court decision in Temple Iron case.

BOUIN TO RACE KOHELMAINEN.

New York, Jan. 27.—Quite the choices tidbit that has been served up to followers of athletic sports here this winter is billed for Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, when Jen Bouin, the noted French runner, and Hannes Kohelmainen, the unconquerable Finlander, will engage in a two mile race in an effort to settle the question of their relative supremacy. The two have long been rivals for the premier honors as distance runners. Kohelmainen defeated Bouin in the Olympic games at Stockholm, but the Frenchman hopes for a different result in the contest tomorrow night.

IRVING TO TUR CANADA.

London, Jan. 27.—Laurence Irving, the youngest son of the late Sir Henry Irving, sailed from Liverpool today to begin a theatrical tour of Canada. He goes out under the direction of the new British-Canadian theatre organization, which aims to make the Canadian stage independent of American theatrical managers and players. Mr. Irving is accompanied by Miss Mabel Hackney and a complete company, and will appear in "The Unwritten Law" and "The Typhoon."

MARKET LETTERS.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Oliver S. Green, with Walter Brothers, U. S. Yards, Chicago, reports the estimated receipts for Monday, Jan. 26:

Cattle—24,000.
Hogs—36,000.
Sheep—30,000.

With prime cattle reaching $9.50 and around 15 car loads handy to heavy weights $9.15 to $9.35, it was close to a steady market, but a big share of the crop up to 9c, it was a slow deal and 10 to 15c lower. light feds $7.65 to $8.25 showed 20 to 35c below high point one week ago. Bulk of the well bred strong weights landed $8.75 to $9.00, with right good 1250 up to 1350, $8.00 to $8.50. Plain of same weights going from $7.60 to $8.00 and tailings down to $7.25 and lower. Stockers and feeders did not have the keen edge of a week ago and were 5 to 10c lower. Choice butcher stock firm at the opening, but closed weak to lower. Bulls steady. Calves 25 to 50c decline.

Fat cows, $4.75 to $8.00.
Heifers, $5.40 to $8.50.
Fancy, $8.00 to $8.76; $8.75 to $9.35.
Bulls, $5.50 to $7.75.
Canners and cutters, $3.50 to $4.70.
Common heavy calves to good vealers, $5.50 to $10.00.
Choice to prime vealers, $10.25 to $10.50.
Inferior stockers to good feeders, $6.25 to $7.50.
Selected light to good weights and choice quality, $7.65 to $7.85.
Extra quality and selected up to 8c and better.
Hogs fully 5c better than best time Saturday, with a top of $8.57½.
Mixed packing, $8.25 to $8.42½.
Medium and butchers, $8.42½ to $8.47½.
Poor to good heavy packing, $8.30 to $8.45.
Rough heavy packing, $8.10 to $8.25.
Light weights, $8.35 to $8.37½.
Select packing and shipping, $8.40 to $8.50½.
Pigs and throw-outs, $2.50 to $9.00.
The market closed weaker.

The quality of sheep and lambs below recent standard. Sheep strong; lambs slow, but about the same value as last week's close. Top sheep, $6.25.

Native ewes, $3.75 to $5.80.
Native yearlings, $6.50 to $7.00.
Western ewes, $3.75 to $5.75.
Native lambs, $6.00 to $8.00.
Western lambs, $6.50 to $8.10.

Kansas City Markets.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan. 26.—Another week of brisk trading in stockers and feeders closed Saturday with 13000 of the 30000 cattle and calves received here bought for shipshipment to farms and feed lots. Mild weather has permitted economical feeding, money is not so difficult to obtain as a short time ago, fat cattle are advancing, and spring is almost in sight, conditions all favoring the trade in stockers and feeders and stimulating prices. The market on them advanced 15 to 25c last week and is strong to 15c higher today. Some fancy stock calves are bringing $8 to $8.35 prime yearlings and twos $7.50 to $8.00, best feeders $7.50 to $8.00, medium thin cattle $6.00 to $7.00. These prices are 25 to 35 cents above last January, and look reasonable when it is considered that fat cattle of all grades are selling $1.00 to $1.75 above a year ago. Missouri farmers were heavy buyers last week, whose practice, generally speaking, is to feed through the winter and finish out with corn on the grass in May and June. In spite of the extremely heavy purchases of Illinois and Iowa stockmen last fall and all through the winter so far, there are still many sections in those states with few cattle. Receipts of cattle here today are 11000 head, a few thousand less than on last Monday. This total is made up of a few meal fed cattle from the south and southwest, some pulp fed cattle from Colorado, a comparatively small number of fair to good native fed steers, the great bulk of the supply running to middle class killers and to stockers and feeders. Receipts here usually run light after Wednesday and this condition is especially noticeable the last few weeks.

J. A. Rickart,
Market Correspondent.

DURBIN.

William Rees and Ed Scott were Springfield visitors last week.

George Dunston of Paris, Mo., visited relatives here last week.

George Darley was taken suddenly ill Friday night and was taken to Passavant hospital, where an operation was performed. His many friends are glad to know that he is doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. David Rawlings celebrated the anniversary of her birthday Sunday by entertaining a number of relatives at dinner.

Miss Irene Oxley is visiting in Baylis for a few days.

Virgil Mansfield of Whitehall is visiting at the home of Leslie Cox.

Quarterly conference will be held at Providence Thursday, Jan. 29, at 10 a. m.

CONFERENCE OF BRITISH LABOR PARTY.

Glasgow, Jan. 27.—Important results are expected to follow the annual conference of the British labor party here this week. The conferance proper, which will meet tomorrow for a three days' session, was preceded today by a special conference on the electoral and parliamentary policy of the party. In view of the new trade union act, by which it has been made lawful to apply funds of a trade union to political objects, it is expected that the labor organizations will agree upon a broader and more active political campaign than ever in their history.

Will Interest Feeders.

In this space from week to week feeders of cattle and hogs, and for that matter of all farm animals, will find some very valuable matter. Charles Wood, who during twenty years has conducted many experiments in feeding, has reserved the space to tell the public generally about the method he has found the best.

Mr. Wood's plan for getting best results is by the use of his improved grain softener and of his recently invented stover rack and troughs. The two, used in conjunction, double the nutriment value in corn and produce results which are guaranteed.

The mere softening of the grain which was the first method used was found to furnish a food that was too rich and the syrup was also too thick. The method now adopted overcomes these difficulties and produces the desired results.

Here are the results which this method will produce and Mr. Wood is ready to guarantee the figures:

1 bushel of No. 2 corn will produce 20-lbs. pork; 12-lbs. beef.
1 bushel of No. 3 corn will produce 18-lbs. pork; 10-lbs. beef.
1 bushel of No. 4 corn will produce 16-lbs. pork; 9-lbs. beef.

Feeders will find the use of this method the surest way to make dollars. Watch this space for further facts on this subject.

MUSTEROLE Routs Pain for Millions

Our grandmothers had a sovereign remedy fo pains and aches—the old fashioned mustard plaster.

It did the work, but goodness how it did sting and blister!

Now you can get this marvelous relief, without the plaster and without the blister!

MUSTEROLE is the Twentieth Century form—a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard that you rub on—and the pain is gone.

And it won't blister the tender skin.

It's so easy to apply. You don't have to bother with a cloth. Just rub it in briskly—so that it penetrates the pores and you get delicious cooling relief.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of Back or Joints, Sprins, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the chest (it prevents pneumonia).

Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually. It is a tsaple in the large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use it and recommend it to the patients.

Ask your doctor,

At your druggist's in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar postpaid.

Mrs. Mattie J. Smith, St. Paul, Ind., says:

"Musterole is worth its weight in gold, and I recommend it almost every day. It is the best for Asthma, Bronchitis and Rheumatism of anything I have ever used."

Men Welcome
Mother's Friend

A Duty that Every Man Owes to Those who Perpetuate the Race.

It is just as important that men should know of progressive methods in advance of motherhood. The suffering, pain and distress incident to child-bearing can be easily avoided by having at hand a bottle of Mother's Friend.

This is a wonderful, penetrating, external application that relieves all tension upon the muscles and enables them to expand without the painful strain upon the ligaments. Thus there is avoided all those nervous spells; the tendency to nausea or morning sickness is counteracted, and a bright, sunny, happy disposition is preserved that reflects wonderfully upon the character and temperament of the little one soon to open its eyes in bewilderment at the joy of his arrival. You can obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at any drug store at $1.00, and it will be the best dollar's worth you ever obtained. It preserves the mother's health, enables her to make a quick and complete recovery, and thus with renewed strength she will eagerly devote herself to the care and attention which mean so much to the welfare of the child. Write to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 129 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their valuable and instructive book of guidance for expectant mothers. Get a bottle of Mother's Friend to-day.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

OPIUM SMUGGGLING AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Jan. 27.—Owing to the large number of steamships arriving at this port at his time of year to load cotton, the customs inspectors are having great difficulty in preventing the smuggling of opium. Many of the vessels are arriving from theorient and considerable quantities of the contraband drug have been seized. In one recent case the Chinese members of the crew of a British ship attacked a party of customs inspectors on the wharves and it required the service of the strong arm squad before the riot could be quelled.

ECZEMA COVERED ENTIRE SCALP

Spread to Body, Limbs, Back and Ears. If Scratched Would Bleed and Smart. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

R. F. D. No. 2, Sunfield, Mich. — "I was troubled with eczema. It began with a sore on the top of the scalp, broke out as a pimple and grew larger until it was a large red spot with a crust or scab over it. This became larger finally covering the entire scalp and spread to different parts of the body, the limbs and back and in the ears. These sores grew larger gradually until some were as large as a quarter of a dollar. They would itch and if scratched they would bleed and smart. The clothing would irritate them at night when it was being removed causing them to itch and smart so I could not sleep. A watery fluid would run from them. My scalp became covered with a scale and when the hair was raised up it would raise this scale; the hair was coming out terribly. My scalp and body itched all the time.

"After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment with two applications we could notice a great difference. My way of using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment was to apply the Ointment to the sores and all over the scalp, then after I would wash the sores and scalp with the Soap. In a month's time I was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Bertha Underwood, Jan. 3, 1913.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

GIRLS! STOP WASHING THE HAIR WITH SOAP

Soap Dries Your Scalp, Causing Dandruff, Then Hair Falls Out—Try This Next Time.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.—Adv.

GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO DEPORT TEN LABOR LEADERS

Men Under Strong Escort Are Put Aboard Steamer and Sent Back to England.

Cape Town, Union of South Africa, Jan. 27.—The government has decided to deport ten of the principal labor leaders, including President Watson and General Secretary Bain of the trades federation. Under a strong escort the men were taken today from Transvaal to Natal and late tonight were put aboard a steamer which will sail before dawn, stopping at no port until it reaches England. This action was taken by virtue of martial law which is still in force in Natal, from which province the deportation can legally take place. Measures will be taken to prevent the men's return to South Africa.

Refuses to Grant Order.

Johonnesburg, Jan. 27.—Supreme Court Justice Wessels refused today to grant an order restraining the government of the Union of South Africa from deporting the labor leaders on the ground that the facts presented were insufficient. BUILD OF THE BABY.

Normal Weights and Measurements Up to Three Years of Age.

A baby should weigh at birth seven pounds, at three months eleven pounds, at five months fourteen pounds, at one year twenty-one pounds, at two years twenty-six pounds and at three years thirty-one pounds. The length of a baby at birth should be twenty and one-half inches, at three months twenty-two inches, at five months twenty-three and a half inches, at one year twenty-eight inches, at two years thirty-two and a half inches and at three years thirty-five inches.

Its chest measure at birth should be thirteen and a half inches, at three months fourteen and a half inches, at five months sixteen inches, at one year eighteen inches, at two years nineteen inches and at three years twenty inches.

Some babies are built very small, and, if well, even if below these figures, there is no cause for worry. But if a baby is about normal size and does not come up to these figures its diet should be carefully looked into, as evidently it is not being properly nourished.

The growth of baby's body is very important. See that the teeth come in properly and that the legs grow straight and strong. The babies should be carefully watched and developed naturally.—Rural Farmer.

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

FURTHER ATTEMPTS TO ADVANCE STOCK MARKET CHECKED

Market Reaction Forces Price Level Down—General Speculation Hampered by Uncertainty Regarding U. S. Steel's Quarterly Report.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Attempts to carry further the advance in stocks were checked early in today's market, which thereafter followed an uncertain course. Speculation slackened and investment buying was on a diminishing scale. The tone at the outset was determined largely by London. Prices of American stocks had risen sharply in that market and when trading began here foreign reports came into this market more actively than for a long time. Under this impulse steel touched 66⅞, the highest of the movement. Only a few of the leaders, however, rose more than a point and heavy realizing soon effected a reaction. The price level was forced below yesterday's close with heaviness in New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio, New Haven and Consolidated Gas. Union Pacific's report of a shrinkage in net earnings of $443,000 last month discouraged buying of railroad stocks. General speculation was hampered by uncertainty as to United States steel's quarterly report which did not appear until after the close. Contrasted with the corresponding quarter of the preceding year, when earnings were $35,185,000 the earnings for the last quarter showed a decided falling off, amounting to $23,036,000, which failed to meet dividend requirements. The total, however, was well up to expectations in view of the diminishing business and falling prices of the period covered, since which time there has been a change for the better.

WHEAT MARKET SHOWS STRONG RALLYING POWER

Export Sales of Flour at Kansas City Help Late Upturn in Wheat—Little Change in Corn and Oats at Close.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Rallying power showed itself today in wheat after news had been received of a big falling off in the world's available supply. The market closed nervous at a shade to ¼c up compared with last night. Corn finished unchanged to ⅛c higher and oats not altered but provisions at a net decline of 5c to 10c.

During the greater part of the session wheat seemed unable to shake off sympathy with a break which prices at Liverpool had suffered from cheap and heavy offerings by Russia.

Extremely mild weather in the United States winter crop belt tended also to give an advantage to the bear side. There were advices that general rains were interfering with shipments from Argentina but no material reaction in prices took place until word came that the decrease in the world's available supply was more than three times as much as a year ago.

Export sales of flour at Kansas City helped the late upturn in the wheat market. Rumors were current, too, that the amount of wheat in country elevators northwest had been over-estimated five to ten million bushels.

Boston despatches telling of corn taken there for shipment to Europe nullified the influences of early cables that said the Argentine corn crop had virtually been made and would be available two weeks ahead of the average time. Attention was drawn to the fact that the amount of corn on passage to Europe was only 12,000,000 bushels compared with 26,000,000 bushels a year ago. Support for oats came about through the action of other grain. Considerable interest was taken in the reported sale of a cargo of Argentine oats to Galveston, where cotton was to be taken as freight in place of the cereal.

Provisions gave signs of hedging by packers. The government livestock figures turned out to be very near to what was generally expected.

AN ELECTRIC HIGH SCHOOL

Electricity from a government power house furnishes heat for the new high school at Rupert, Idaho, in the center of the Minidoka irrigation project, according to a statement just issued by the United States bureau of education. This is said to be the first case on record where a large building has been heated entirely by electricity. The use of electric current for heating and for a variety of other purposes in the new building has caused it to be known as "The Electric High School."

The system of electric heating installed in the Rupert high school is remarkable for its simplicity. The usual arrangement of hot air pipes, flues, etc., has been adhered to, but instead of furnaces or steam coils a battery of electric heat units, similar to those used in electric baking ovens, provides the heat. Twenty 18-k. w. units are installed in pairs, each pair with a separate control of the current from a switch board in the principal's office. Thus the principal can regulate absolutely the amount of current used. An emergency switch in the principal's office may also be used to cut out all current from the entire building—heat, light, power, etc.

Electricity is put to work everywhere in the Rupert building. A 10-horse power motor, besides driving the ventilating fan, supplies all the power needed for the lathes and saws in the manual training department. An electric water heater supplies the hot water for the domestic science department, for the shower baths, for the various lavatories, and for the science rooms. In the domestic science room each girl of a class of 20 has her individual electric disk stove and all necessary cooking utensils. This room will also have an electric range and other electric equipment for serving cafeteria lunches on a large scale.

In the science laboratories electric hot plates are provided for evaporation purposes, and each pupil will have an electric appliance to take the place of Bunsen burners.

The electric lighting system includes an auditorium set with stage lights and switch control equal to those of the best theaters. The lighting and other equipment have been planned with the idea of making the high school a model "community center."

The entire electric equipment was planned by local electricians with the assistance of United States government engineers on the Minidoka project. The government supplies surplus current from its own power house 14 miles above Rupert, at a cost low enough to compete with coal. It is estimated that the cost of heating the new high school by electricity will be $1,760 per year. Coal might have been used at a cost of about $1,000, but the use of electricity saves the wages of a fireman at $75 per month, and the cost of installing the electric system was $3,000 less than for any other system of heat—the interest on this investment being saved annually. It is therefore believed that the use of electric heat in the Rupert high school, besides being a great convenience, will prove a real economy.

NINETEEN SUITS ARE TAKEN FROM FREIGHT CAR

Car Standing in C. & A. Yards is Broken Into Within Short Time After it is Loaded.

Nineteen suits of clothes were stolen from a merchandise car standing in the north end of the local Chicago & Alton freight yards, Monday night between the hours of 5:30 and 10 o'clock.

Officer Baker found that the car had been broken into while on his beat in the yards Monday night and he reported the matter to Agent Diltz of the Chicago & Alton. Investigation showed that a box containing the clothes had been taken from the car and an empty box was found not far away. The police have been provided with samples of the goods which the clothes were made from to aid them in identifying the suits. Six were made from one pattern, four each of two other patterns and five of another pattern. They were from the factory of J. Capps & Sons. The police have no clue to the identity of the guilty parties.

ELKS MEETING WILL BE CALLED THIS AFTERNOON.

The meeting of the Elks of the Western District of Illinois will be held at the headquarters of Jacksonville lodge No. 682, this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the session will continue through the afternoon. A large number of visitors is expected for the meeting and a number of prominent Elks will attend. F. L. Sharpe has been assured by Dr. Rumpkin, president of the State association, that he will attend and the clerk of the state organization is also expected. This evening the regular lodge meeting will be held and it will be followed by a banquet and social session.

INDIANA HARDWARE DEALERS.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Nearly two thousand prominent representatives of the hardware trade have gathered in this city for theannual convention of the Indiana Retail Hardware association. The sessions are being held at the Claypool hotel and will continue until Friday. Milo J. Thomas of Corunna is the president of the association. A big exhibition of hardware products is being held in connection with the convention.

FIND BODY IN CAVE.

Ottawa, Ills., Jan. 27.—The body of a man found in a cave near LaSalle on January 16th, today was identified as that of Paul Bouva, a French barber, who has been missing from his home in Chicago. The identification was made by two friends of Bouva. It is believed he was murdered.

PASSING OF E. W. BLATCHFORD.

Eliphalet W. Blatchford passed on from his residence in Chicago last Sunday night.

Mr. Blatchford was more than a citizen of Chicago, and in one way and another he had been identified with Jacksonville. No doubt the crowning glory of his life was largely due to his attendance upon Illinois college, and the beneficent effects of its teachings. He was a member of the notable class of 1845, and probably the last of that number. If anyone is left, it would be Timothy Ward, according to the last Alumni list. The other members of the class were W. Chauncey Carter, Rev. W. E. Catlin, H. Talmage Collins, Hon Wm. C. Goudy, Rev. Wm. Ireland, Erastus S. Jones, M. D., Hon. Barbour Lewis, Henry M. Lyons, M. D., Rev. Wm. H. Milburn, D. D. Ward and Rev. Rensselaer Winchell.

Mr. Blatchford was one of the first initiated members of Sigma Pi society, and he remembered it long after his college days in presents.

In Jacksonville Mr. Blatchford was known of in connection with Mr. Morris Collins, whose second wife was a Miss Blatchford. So that Blatchford, A. Morris, Alice and Martha (Mrs. Downing) were his nephews and neices. Mr. Collins' last residence here was in the home now occupied by Mr. E. C. Lambert. Mr. Collins made his fortune in St. Louis, and came here and spent his declining years. Probably he and Mr. Blatchford were business partners in St. Louis, and A. Morris Collins was in the employ of Mr. Blatchford at the time of the former's death.

Mr. Blatchford was a member of the Congregational church, in which he was a national figure.

Tuesday's Inter Ocean had a local notice of Mr. Blatchford's death and in addition to that had the subjoined article as its leading editorial.

Ensley Moore.

E. W. Blatchford, Useful Citizen.

The death on Sunday, in his eighty-eighth year, of E. W. Blatchford removes from the civic scene a man who for more than half a century could rightly be described as one of Chicago's most useful citizens. Since 1854 the firm of which he was long the head has been one of the commercial landmarks of the city. But he did much more than become a successful business man and accumulate a fortune.

He came to Chicago from Stillwater, N. Y., as a boy, when his father, the Rev. John Blatchford, was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian church. After graduation from Illinois College at Jacksonville in 1845 he entered business in St. Louis, but in 1854 came back to Chicago. His public services began in 1861.

Readers of the Inter-Ocean's "Fifty Years Age Today" column have noted mention of Mr. Blatchford's activities as treasurer of the Northwestern branch of the national sanitary commission and of his journeys to the battlefields with relief for stricken soldiers. One of his latest efforts was on the appeal last year for aid for the Balkan war sufferers.

His services in the advancement of religious and educational work were also notable. He was one of the founders of the Chicago City Missionary society and for many years was chairman of the board of the Chicago Theological Seminary and a member and vice president of of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He was also active in the work of the Art Institute, a trustee of Illinois college and chairman of the board of the Chicago Manual Training school until its absorption by the University of Chicago.

But his visible monuments are the Newberry and Crerar libraries. He was one of the original trustees of the estate of Walter C. Newberry, and also a trustee under the will of John Crerar. The building of the Newberry, under his trusteeship, set the example hereabouts for comfortable and dignified housing of a great library. It was the first of Chicago's monumental library buildings. It set a mark for the city when it came to erect its own library building. To his clear grasp of the situation may be largely ascribed the wise co-operation and avoidance of unnecessary duplication of effort which has marked the conduct of these institutions.

These achievements, rather than his commercial success, made the life of Eliphalet Wickes Blatchford one of public note and conspicuous public service, and make his death the subject of regretful public comment. His life was prolonged far beyond the average duration, and to the end it was a life of honorable and useful public service.

DAIRYMEN MEET.

Freeport, Ill., Jan. 27.—The Fortieth annual convention of the Illinois Dairymen's association opened here today and will continue three days. The convention probably will endorse Governor Dunne's proclamation prohibiting importation from certain states of dairy cattle for breeding and dairying purposes except where cattle so imported have passed the tuberculin test. Peoria and Rockford are seeking the next convention.

It will not be necessary to take the books to the library but the full title of the volume and the date when taken out must always be given.

TESTIMONY FAVORS INSANITY THEORY IN SCHMIDT CASE

Examination of Witnesses For the Defense is Taken Up at Priests' Second Trial.

New York, Jan 27.—At the second trial today of Hans Schmidt, charged with murder of Anna Aumuller the examination of witnesses for the defense was taken up. The Rev. John S. Braun, pastor of St. Boniface's Catholic church of this city and his sister, Miss Margaret N. Braun, both of whom made the acquaintance of Schmidt while he was assistant at the church, testified to peculiar conduct of the ex-priest while occupied with religious offices. In completing its testimony the prosecution submitted depositions taken in Germany. Most of them it is said favor the insanity theory of the defense. A transcript from the records of the Royal German supreme court which tried Schmidt on a charge of having forged private documents says the prisoner is pathologically unconscious of mind.

Reports of German alienists say the ex-priest, studying then for the degree of doctor of philosophy, played a violin while sitting in a bath tub and performed priestly offices in his night clothes.

Ralph and Paul Barrow and Frank Hembrough spent Saturday evening with Dean Hembrough.

Isaac Watson was a Friday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hembrough.

Robert Hembrough, a freshman in the Jacksonville high school, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hembrough.

Ralph and Loren Green returned to their home near Palmyra Saturday, after a pleasant visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Green.

George Megginson visited his friend, George Hembrough, Sunday.

MRS. WARNER'S HOUSE BURGLARIZED

After the death of Joseph Warner, Mrs. Warner went to the home of her son in Montana and leaving the family residence closed and not asking anyone to look after it. Yesterday morning it was discovered that some one had broken into the place, upset things generally and stolen a quantity of articles of considerable value.

A NATIONAL BALLAD SEARCH

A national search for old ballads has been inaugurated by the United States bureau of education. Convinced that many of the English and Scottish popular ballads of olden times still survive in the United States, and that immediate steps are necessary to rescue them from oblivion, the bureau has commissioned Prof. C. Alphonso Smith of the University of Virginia, a prominent folk lore investigator, to institute a nation wide search for versions of thes old ballads that once helped to mold the character of the men and women who made up the larger part of the colonial population of this country.

"If our Amrican versions are not collected immediately they can never be collected at all," Prof. Smith asserts. "Many influences are tending to obliterate them. Catchy but empty songs not worthy of comparison with them, the decadence of communal singing, the growing diversity of interests, the appeal to what is divisive and separative in our national life, the presence of the artificial and self conscious in modern writing are depriving our homes and school rooms of a kind of literature which, for community of feeling, for vigor of narrative, for vividness of portraiture, and for utter simplicity of style and content, is not surpassed in the whole history of English or American song."

A list of 305 of the ballads, all that are known to exist, has been distributed to teachers and others by the bureau of education. Those who receive the lists are asked to indicate whether they or their friends know any of the ballads.

The plan is to start a ballad collection for each state, so that state folk lore societies may be encouraged to take up the work and preserve a body of valuable popular literature that threatens to become extinct.

Among the ballads for which survivals are sought are: Robin Hood; The Beggar Laddie; Bonny Barbara Allan; The Crafty Farmer; Durham Field; The Earl of Mar's Daughter; Fair [illegible]; Armstrong's Last Goodnight; Lady Isabel and the Elf Knight; Child Maurice; The Lass of Roch Loyal; The Mermaid; Rob Roy; The Three Ravens; Trooper and Maid, and the Wife of Usher's Well.

POLICE CALLED TO QUIET CROWDS OF GARMENT WORKERS

Officers Arrest Speakers Who Address Gatherings of Idle Men and Women.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Riot calls were turned in at West Side police stations tonight for help to quiet gatherings of hundreds of unemployed garment workers who were being harangued by men who said they represented the Industrial Workers of the World. Five of the speakers were arrested. The open winter has thrown thousands of garment workers out of employment and there has been much suffering reported in the west side Ghetto districts. The police were called when Norris Bernstein and Harry Wishnewsky held the attention of a thousand or more garment workers who had just left a meeting in Workingman's Hall. The speakers recalled the Haymarket riots and a dozen fights were in progress when the first load of the police reached the crowd.

The crowd followed when Bernstein and Wishneywsky were taken to a police station and three others were arrested.

MISS OLLIE WEATHERFORD AND MR. WILLIAM BECKER TO WED

Prominent Morgan County Young People to be Married Soon—Cat Let Out of Bag Last Evening at Clever Announcement Party.

Announcement was made Tuesday evening of the engagement of Miss Ollie Weatherford of this city to Mr. William Becker of Alexander, two well known Morgan county young people whose marriage will take place in a short time. The "cat was let out of the bag" at a clever announcement party at the home of Miss Florence Bourn, 619 East State street, and the news was made known to forty assembled friends of Miss Weatherford and Mr. Becker.

The party was in celebration of the 20th birthday of Miss Bourn and the guests assembled with no thought of the surprise in store for them. The house was decorated in pink and white and the same color idea was carried out in the refreshments. Various members of the company furnished music and the games arranged by the hostess were original and novel as well as entertaining. The guests learned of the engagement from a card attached to the neck of a cat which was brought into the room and liberated, bearing a card on which was inscribed the initials of the young people. A birthday cake was cut in which were placed a needle, thimble and dime, found respectively by Miss Edith Carlson, Miss Tracy Becker and Mrs. Edward Cristopher.

Miss Weatherford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weatherford of East College avenue and is a young lady of amiable disposition and charming manner. She was reared in Jacksonville and was graduated from the high school with the class of 1913. Mr. Becker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker of South Main street and was reared and educated north of Alexander where he at present resides on a farm. Both young people have friends in large numbers and the congratulations and good wishes they will receive will be many and sincere.

FARMERS BEGIN PLOWING.

An unusual sight for this time of the year, and one which may be seen in the southern part of the county and in the vicinity of Manchester, is that of farmers in the field plowing and getting the ground ready for this year's planting. MANY HEAR BREACH OF PROMISE CASE AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE

Paul Fritchey Found Guilty in Amusing Mock Trial and Assessed Judgement—Good House Witnesses Performance.

A good sized audience was present at the Grand Tuesday evening to witness the mock breach of promise trial under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., which was staged by a number of well known residents of Jacksonville. The trial was interesting throughout and much amusement was afforded by the "hits" and "take-offs" on local people. The defendant was found guilty and a judgement was assessed against him for $3.47, to be divided up between the judge and jury.

Some startling revelations were made in the testimony of Mrs. Wallace Brockman who took the part of Miss Jeruhsa R. Perkins and of the defendant, Paul B. Fritchey. Miss Perkins and her aunt kept a boarding house and all was well until both niece and aunt became rivals for the hand of the same young man. The opposing sides were ably presented, the prosecution by Col. A. V. Newton, and defense by John Butler and Robert Tilton. Chief of Police George Davis took the part of the bailiff and Harry Hart of clerk. Mrs. James H. Danskin made a great hit as the "klepto-dipso-monomaniac" aunt. George Vasconcellos, Miss Jeanette Taylor, Walter Shrag and Dr. G. B. Bradley were the other witnesses. Very humorous was their testimony concerning the $3,000 engagement ring, the dog fight at Illinois college, the beaten board bill and the fifty page love letters sent in bags of sugar. The whole event was full of zinger from the summoning of the jury to the parting words of Judge E. P. Brockhouse who begged the jurymen to dismiss any thing he may have said from their "alleged minds."

The jurymen were W. C. Springgate, T. M. Tomlinson, W. B. Miser, Wm. Brady, A. T. Capps, Dr. F. J. Hayden, Joshua Vasconcellos, J. G. Reynolds, F. J. Andrews, William Dalton, Fletcher Hopper and Dr. J. R. Harker.

Some days ago the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Minnesota honored Dr. Louis H. Clampit of this city by appointing him their representative at the Grand Chapter of this state. This is a great honor and one very worthily bestowed as Dr. Clampit has been prominently identified with the noble order for a long time.

Members of Jacksonville Chapter No. 3, Royal Arch Masons, have decided to show the worthy companion that they are grateful for the honor and mindful of its magnitude and propose at the meeting, Feb. 23rd, to have special attention paid to it with a program prepared for the occasion and the excellent idea will doubtless be seconded by a large number of the order.

MORTUARY

Howard.

Mrs. Margaret Howard of Mt. Vernon died at a hospital in the city Monday night. The remains were taken to the Reynolds undertaking establishment and were sent to Mt. Vernon Tuesday morning, accompanied by her son J. F. Howard.

Mrs. Howard was born in Owensboro, Ky., and was a daughter of a Major Triplett, who was an officer in the Confederate army. Her husband died about fourteen years ago and she is survived by her two sons, Joseph W. Howard and George Howard, prominent business men of Mt. Vernon. She also has seven grandchildren.

Lempert.

Word has been received in the city of the death of Mrs. P. L. Lampert, who passed away at her home in Mangum, Oklahoma. She was a sister of John and Matthew Minter and for a great many years made Jacksonville her home.

Gilpin.

Floyd Gilpin, infant son of Oscar Gilpin, died at the residence on North Sandy street, Tuesday night at 8 o'clock after an illness with diphtheria.

MATRIMONIAL

Pemberton-Clear.

William H. Pemberton and Miss Mary E. Clear, both of Bluffs, were married Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock by Squire W. T. Dyer at his office on West street. They will reside in Bluffs.

Renfro-Holmes.

Mr. Henry Renfro and Miss Ethel Holmes were married at the Centenary M. E. church parsonage, Tuesday at noon, the pastor, Rev. George W. Flagge officiating.

Mr. Renfro is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Renfro of near Ashland and Miss Holmes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Holmes of the Ashland community. The attendants were Mr. August Renfro and Miss Ruth Hall. The young people come from well known families and are highly respected. They left over the 3:55 Alton train for St. Louis on a short wedding trip. They expect to be at home to their friends about the middle of February and will make their home on a farm about 4 1-2 miles southeast of Ashland.

CARDINAL CITED TO APPEAR IN COURT.

Paris, Jan. 27.—Cardinal Amette, Archbishop of Paris, has been cited to appear before the civil tribunal in a suit for 20,000 francs ($4,000) damages brought by M. Stillson, a teacher of dancing. Stillson sets forth the claim that admonition issued by Cardinal Amette early in January, forbidding the dancing of the tango as a sin and condemning the dance as indecent, not only caused Stillson financial loss by driving away all his pupils but was an aspersion on his moral character.

FUNERALS

Carter.

Funeral services for Mrs. Elnore Carter were held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Skinner 355 West Lafayette avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of Rev. G. W. Flagge, pastor of Centenary M. E. church. The services were attended by a large gatrering of relatives and friends. Music was furnished by Mrs. Wallace Brockman, Miss Cora Graham, Charles Mathis and W. W. Gillham and the flowers, which were many and beautiful, were cared for by Miss Irene Simms, Miss Mabel Skinner, Miss Olive Smith and Mrs. H. O. Skinner.

Interment was made in Jacksonville cemetery and the bearers were: George Skinner, Beverly Skinner, George Tandy, John Reid, James Ellis and Andrew Ingram.

Scott.

The funeral of James Z. Scott was held at the late residence, three miles west of the city, Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. Members of Jacksonville lodge No. 682, B. P. O. Elks, attended in a body. The services were conducted by Rev. Ezra Fox of Gibson City, a long time friend of the family, and were most impressive.

Robert M. Hockenhull, accompanied by Miss Carrie Dunlap, sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears," and the flowers, which were many and beautiful, were cared for by Miss Zella Scott, Mrs. John Lazenby and Eugene Scott.

Interment was made in Liberty cemetery and members of the Elks acted as an escort to the cemetery. The Elks' committment service was carried out at the grave with the following officers in charge: George Orear, Exalted Ruler; H. K. Chenoweth, Esteemed Leading Knight; Lew H. Pratt, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; Frank Byrns, Esteemed Loyal Knight and F. L. Sharpe, chaplain. The bearers were: Dr. Robert Buckthorpe, Benjamin Lurton, G. A. Smith, W. L. Leach, Henry Goebel, John Lazenby and John W. Cleary.

to the authorities of all the surrounding country.

Families Were Close Friends.

No more pointed testimony of the close relationships existing between the Ezard and Henry families could be furnished than the fact that last night they all slept beneath the one roof. In adjoining rooms were the widowed wife and fatherless children of Charles Ezard and the wife and children of the murderer. Mrs. Ezard has an infant but a few weeks old and is still somewhat frail and Mrs. Henry like Mrs. Ezard was suffering from the shock of the awful tragedy yet each sought to comfort the other. It is related that after Henry fired the fatal shots at the Ezard home that when Mrs. Ezard shriked with grief and alarm he shouted to be quiet or he might kill the whole family.

The statement that the relations between Henry and Crain were friendly and that Henry was thought to have had no ill will toward Crain because of the Henry and Grunder land deal is based upon the fact that Crain had expressed regret that he has become mixed in the affair and said that he felt that way because of his friendly relations with John Henry. It is said too that Henry had commented upon the case in a very tolerant way.

That Henry was crazed by drink or by some sudden spasm of hate is clear as one considers the atroviousness of his crime and yet there was touch of rational and normal feeling when he went to his own home and gave to each of his children a farewell kiss and expressed the parting hope that after he had gone away forever that they might be good boys and girls. And today may reveal what John Henry meant when he spoke those parting words whether he meant that he was to become a fugitive from justice pursued from state to state or whether his mind was bent upon taking that long journey to the great beyond.

Among the business men of Woodson the majority of those seen last night by a Journal reporter were unable to give any motive for the crime but expressed themselves strongly as not believing that Henry had been drinking heavily. Several men who talked to him as late as five o'clock in the afternoon said that he acted in a normal way and that there was no trace of liquor on his breath.

In the company of neighbors and friends gathered at the Ezard home was Charles Henry, father of John Henry and as he sat by the bier of Mr. Ezard, great sobs shook his frame. His home is just across the roadway from the Ezard home and like his son he had the most friendly relations with the family.

When the physicians arrived at the Crain home they found Mr. Crain and his son lying upon the floor where they had fallen and their wounds were such that a great pool of blood surrounded them. Death same almost instantly to both of them and there were only a few gasps after the shots were fired until their spirits were no more. Blood was spatered, too, all about the doorway at the Ezard home and it will be long before all the stains are removed and the memory of them will never fade.

ADOPT PLAN FOR UNIFORM TERMINAL ALONG MISSISSIPPI

Executive Counsel of Upper Mississippi River Improvements Ass'n Adopts Engineer's Plan.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 27.—The plan for uniform terminals along the Mississippi river submitted by H. McL Harding, consulting engineer of New York, was adopted by the executive council of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association in session here tonight. The plan will be outlined in the near future to all cities and towns along the river for their approval.

Under the proposed plan steamers of all lines will be permitted to use the terminals for loading and unloading freight. President Thomas Wilkinson of Burlington, Ia., said tonight he believed the system as outlined by Mr. Harding would be heartily approved by all interests concerned.

Among the officers present were Thomas Wilkinson, of Burlington, Ia., president of the association since its organization; L. B. Boswill of Quincy, Ill., secretary and these vice presidents:

Wendell Anderson of LaCrosse, Wis.; L. A. Hamill of Keokuk, Ia.; Sidney Joy of Hannibal, Mo.; and C. F. Perry of Quincy, Ill.

Addresses were made by Carl DeLaittre, Joseph W. Braedon and Owens C. Andrews of Minneapolis, and by Fowler Manning, traffic manager of the Streckfus Steamboat line, St. Louis and Captain Walter A. Blair of Davenport, Ia., owner of the Blair line.

DUNDEE TROUNCES ENGLISH BOXER IN NEW YORK BOUT

"Sapper" O'Neil Shows Gameness But is Unable to Keep the New York Boy Away.

New York, Jan. 27.—In the first of two international bouts at Madison Square Garden tonight, Johnny Dundee severely trounced "Sapper" O'Neil of England. The local fighter conceded 9 3-4 pounds to the visiting pugilist who weighed 135 pounds, but forced the pace from the start. O'Neil showed gameness but was unable to keep the lighter man away.

In the second bout Owen Moran of England, after receiving severe punishment from "Young" Shugrue of Jersey City, quit at the end of the seventh round. In that round Shugrue landed several rights and lefts to the head and then made the body his target. Moran claimed one of the punches was too low but the referee refused to allow the claim and ordered the Englishman to continue. Moran finished the round but at the bell threw up his hands and refused to proceed. Moran weighed in at 128 pounds, Shugrue at 132 1-2.
